About Us

Barkat Group is a registered overseas recruitment agency dedicated to streamlining the hiring process for international job placements. We specialize in providing skilled and unskilled candidates across various industries from India, Bangladesh, and Nepal. Our clientele includes a few fortune 500 companies. Our goal is to bridge the gap between top-tier organizations and the right talent.

We take a meticulous approach to understanding our clients' requirements and aligning them with our vast database of job seekers. This ensures an optimal match, leading to long-term success for both employers and candidates.

With expertise spanning multiple industries, sectors, and job functions, we deliver manpower solutions at all levels of hierarchy. Our commitment to ethical recruitment practices and a systematic approach has been instrumental in our success.

At Barkat Group, we prioritize identifying candidates with a strong potential for long-term association with our clients. This focus enables businesses to implement sustainable growth strategies while fostering career stability for job seekers.

From Director's Desk

Barkat Group, established in 1984, our journey began with a clear mission to redefine human resource management by combining quality and quantity in the most effective way. Over the years, we have remained steadfast in our vision to build a team of exceptional individuals who contribute to our shared success.

We believe that people are the foundation of our success. Our priority has always been to foster a professional environment that enables personal and professional growth for our employees.

As a diverse group, we embrace unity in diversity, bringing together individuals from different backgrounds and cultures with a common purpose to grow and succeed collectively. Respect, transparency, and trust define our interactions with each other and with our esteemed clients. We encourage open communication and value fresh ideas and perspectives.

We believe that transparency builds long-term relationships. While we maintain professionalism, we also create a welcoming, informal atmosphere where employees and clients feel heard and valued. Our approach ensures that every challenge is addressed with fairness and integrity.

Our commitment to excellence is reflected in everything we do. Every member of our team takes ownership of their responsibilities, demonstrating entrepreneurial spirit and self-discipline to deliver the best results.

At Barkat Group, we operate as one family, upholding the values of teamwork, loyalty, integrity, commitment, diversity, and dignity. These principles set us apart in the industry, and we remain dedicated to delivering exceptional service.

With unwavering commitment,

Ashfaq Maqbook Khan
